

1884

Lionello Stock founds the company Distilleria a vapore Camis & Stock in Trieste with his friend Carlo Camis. Its main product is Cognac Stock Medicinal.

1920s

The company grows to become one of the largest alcohol producers in Europe. In addition to Italy, the company establishes distilleries, and bottling and maturation plants, across Central and Eastern Europe, as well as in the USA (New York) and even Egypt.

1935

The company introduces its 1884 Cognac Fine Champagne brand, which is renamed in 1955 as Brandy Stock 84 – a world-famous product still present in the Stock Spirits portfolio.

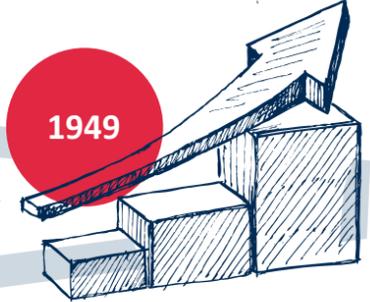

1948

After the liberation of Czechoslovakia, the factory in Plzeň is returned to Lionello Stock. However, soon after, it is nationalised by the Czechoslovak Communist government.

1947

Lionello Stock passes away, leaving the company and his legacy to be continued by his family.

1949

The company changes its name to Stock S.p.A. and begins to grow rapidly again.

1950s

Stock develops innovative marketing strategies and advertising campaigns for emerging channels like radio and television.

1960s

Stock supports the arts. In 1966, company president Alberto Casali commissions twelve masters of contemporary Italian painting to produce canvases depicting the iconic Brandy Stock 84 brand.

1971

Two new plants are built in Trieste and Portogruaro, Italy. The company has 3,000 employees in 21 factories – 8 located in Italy and 13 abroad.

1990s

Having revived the Camis & Stock name, it becomes a public limited company in 1991. It is acquired by Eckes in 1995, resulting in the creation of Eckes & Stock GmbH – one of the leading producers of branded spirits in Germany, Austria, Slovakia, the Czech Republic and Italy.

2008

Eckes & Stock GmbH merges with Polmos Lublin in Poland to form Stock Spirits Group. Polmos Lublin was founded as Lublin Distillery in 1906. It was nationalised in 1951 and then privatised in 2001.

2013

Stock Spirits Group makes its debut on the London Stock Exchange (LSE).

2021

Stock Spirits Group becomes part of the portfolio of companies owned by the private equity fund CVC Capital Partners.

2023

The company completes the acquisitions of Polmos Bielsko-Biala in Poland, Borco (the owner of the Sierra Tequila and Finsbury gin brands) in Germany, as well as the brand builder and distribution partner Dugas and the Clan Campbell Scotch whisky brand in France.

2024

Stock Spirits Group celebrates the 140th anniversary of its creation. The company's portfolio includes more than 80 brands, available in more than 50 countries.

